Description

A mahogany Campaign Tripod Table or Candlestand.

The table has a nicely turned column which unscrews from both the top and tripod base on wooden threads. A shaped disc sits on top of the base to give a tidy join to the column. The 3 shaped legs are cut as silhouettes.

The table has a fine, light quality to it lifted by intermittent faded, painted ebony rings to the column. A very useful, small sized table for putting a glass or 2 on. Early 19th Century.
