Description

A leather pigskin Cigar Wallet or Case with a slide lock.

Both sides of the interior are lined in a softer leather and fitted with dividers to take various sizes of cigar. The case is pleated to the sides to allow it to expand to a depth of 2 3/4 inches. The cigar case is marked below the slide catch with the unknown marks of GEB R.M.S. and No. 56018 with CL below.

This is a different form of cigar case to those we normally find and can take far more than most. It could also be used for a number of other things such as business cards and stamps. Early 20th Century.
